Has your organization:

- ✓ Been formally established as a legal entity to provide charitable services in Ontario;
- ✓ Been in existence for at least one year;
- ✓ Provided charitable community services consistent with the primary purposes of the organization for at least one year.

Do your organization's objects, purposes and activities fall within at least one of the four classifications:

- ✓ 1. The relief of poverty
- ✓ 2. The advancement of education
- ✓ 3. The advancement of religion
- ✓ 4. Other charitable purposes beneficial to the community, not falling under 1, 2 or 3

Does your organization:

- ✓ Have a place of business in Ontario;
- ✓ Have an established organizational structure;
- ✓ Operate separately (organizationally, legally and financially) from any other organization;
- ✓ Benefit the public at large, not a private group;
- ✓ Undertake projects with a charitable purpose as one of its main aims and normal activities;
- ✓ Propose to use proceeds for charitable purposes that benefit Ontario and its residents; and
- ✓ Assume full responsibility for the conduct and management of its lottery events.

If you answered 'yes' to all of these questions, your organization may be eligible for lottery licensing.
