

Port Colborne Christmas Market promises to be a festive good time

Port Colborne, ON (Dec. 9, 2020) – The first ever Port Colborne Christmas Market is happening this Friday, Dec. 11 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and promises to be a festive good time.

The Market Square in Port Colborne will radiate holiday cheer this Friday, with local farmers and artisan vendors selling seasonal products that make for perfect Christmas gifts. Vendors include:

B. Gonfa Food Services	Bee's Flowers Cart
Bud's Kettle Corn	Chocolate Expressions
Custom Quilts and More by Tammy	Flour Child Bakery
Gravelly Bay Coffee	Green Acres Greenhouses
Harp and Clove	Laura's Farm
Lisa's Country Gardens	P & E Foods
She Lvs Leggs	Small Town Soaps and M&M's Kustom Kreations
Snack Tastic	Soothing Petals
The Zielles	To Have and to Hold
Vaticano Restaurant	Souvenirs of Tibet

"We're excited to host our first Christmas Market," said Ashley Grigg, Director of Community and Economic Development. "This is an opportunity for us to bring the festive spirit to the City of Port Colborne, for vendors to showcase their products, and for the community to support local."

For those looking to PORTicipate in a positive way, Port Colborne Fire and Emergency Services will be collecting toys in support of their annual Port Cares Toy Drive. Residents can bring unwrapped toys for children aged 0 – 18 and non-perishable food items.

There will be no parking in the Market Square until 3 p.m. on Friday, and those wishing to attend the Christmas Market are encouraged to park on side streets. Following COVID-19 policies and procedures, the market will host a maximum of 65 attendees at a time, with one-way traffic flow, and hand sanitizers will be located at the entrance and exit. City staff will be onsite to ensure physical distancing is maintained, and patrons follow provincial and public health protocol.
