

PORT COLBORNE

MEDIA RELEASE

New year brings a new council schedule for Port Colborne

Port Colborne, ON (Jan. 20, 2022) – Port Colborne is kicking off 2022 with a change to the council schedule, with meetings moving to the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. The first council meeting for 2022 is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 25.

Council members will return to council chambers virtually and residents can stream live, or watch at a more convenient time, on the city's YouTube channel. Council meetings are also aired on Cogeco's YourTV, channel 10, the Thursday following a council meeting at 9 a.m.

To access the council calendar, download a council package (available the Thursday prior to a council meeting), or to subscribe to receive the council package directly to your email inbox, visit our website.

To learn more about your members of council, or to contact your ward councillor, visit our website.

Port Colborne is also reminding residents that 2022 is an election year, with the 2022 municipal election scheduled for Monday, Oct. 24, 2022. More information about the election will be provided soon. To stay up to date on city information, subscribe to our news channel.

About the City of Port Colborne

Located on the south coast of the scenic Niagara Region, with a mission to provide an exceptional small town experience in a big way, Niagara's Port of Call has found the perfect balance – successful industrial and commercial sectors, comfortable and scenic residential areas, white sand beaches, unique culinary choices, the world class Sugarloaf Marina, fishing, golfing, trails, shopping districts along the historic Welland Canal and an energized festival and entertainment scene that includes live theatre – truly a community that adds to the overall Niagara experience. To learn how you can PORTicipate with us, visit our website.

-30-

For more information, contact:

Michelle Idzenga
Corporate Communications Officer
905-835-2900 x 307
michelle.idzenga@portcolborne.ca